

Alpha Gamma Delta Legacies: Our Policy Explained

- Alpha Gamma Delta recognizes that legacies are important to our Fraternity because they bring loyalty, strength, pride and support to our chapters.
- A legacy is a daughter, sister, granddaughter or step-daughter of an Alpha Gamma Delta who is an initiated member in Good Standing with the Fraternity.
- It is the responsibility of the legacy's Alpha Gamma Delta relatives and friends to notify a chapter that she will be participating in recruitment by completing a Recruitment Information Form and Legacy Introduction Form.
- Collegiate chapters are not required to offer a bid to a legacy.
- An Alpha Gamma Delta legacy should be a qualified recruitment guest in her own right—grades, activities, accomplishments and overall compatibility with the chapter.
- The Fraternity expects all collegiate chapters to give serious consideration to each legacy out of courtesy to the Alpha Gamma Delta member to whom she is related.
- A legacy must be invited to at least one invitational round of the chapter's recruitment functions.
- If a chapter releases a legacy, an advisor for the chapter must contact the Alpha Gamma Delta relative of the legacy to inform her of the legacy's release from membership consideration. All efforts must be taken to contact the relative prior to the distribution of invitations to the next round of recruitment events.
- If a chapter invites a legacy to Preference (final function), the legacy must be placed on the chapter's first bid list.
- Alpha Gamma Delta members must have realistic expectations for our legacies. We must remember that some legacies are happier in another Greek group. All NPC groups have similar goals and ideals.
